

K-Love radio serves me by offering commercial free, family friendly radio. If K-Love were replaced by an LPFM broadcaster my children would have to have everything censored while we drive. Klove serves the public interest by offering family friendly information and music without hype, shock, or profanity.